Dear Joshua Overholt:

The Civil Rights Bureau of the Illinois Attorney General's Office has received a copy of your complaint against Multiple Parties. Thank you for taking the time to share with us the details of what you experienced.

Unfortunately, the Civil Rights Bureau will not investigate further at this time. We have documented the incidents to track whether the conduct continues or indicates a possible pattern or practice of discrimination.

This should not be considered a final determination of the merits of your allegations or the result of any formal findings of fact or law. The Illinois Attorney General's Office represents the State of Illinois and the interests of the people living here, not the individual making a complaint. We cannot provide legal advice, represent you as your personal lawyer, or seek monetary or other relief on your behalf. Therefore, if you wish to proceed with possible claims, you may want to speak with an attorney or contact any of the organizations listed below for legal service.
